Language Learning Counsellor

Students can make an appointment to discuss how best to improve their English, based on their needs and goals.

This guiding towards independent study will enable weaker students to improve their all-round English skills.

The student does the work, but they can discuss their language learning needs or problems with the counsellor as frequently as they wish.

Students will be directed to facilities and resources available, eg the best reference and text books, audio and visual materials, as well as library access.
